

Ruben Marrero Pernas / woof / Warg / Warg Schwarz / wolfss / Ulfr / Schwarzeiler

Ruben Marrero Pernas ('woof') is a Cuban Zoosadist who recorded himself torturing, sodomising, killing, mutilating, and pleasuring himself with the remains of at least two dogs. There is strong reason to believe that he has done similar things to more animals.

Alongside zoosadism, Pernas is also a prolific zoophilliac and dog-sodomiser. Pernas has photographed and filmed himself fondling, fellating, and engaging in vaginal and anal sex with his own dogs on the zoophile discussion board, BeastForum. Pernas has also written detailed written accounts of detailed sexual encounters he has had with animals, including animals that do not belong to him and animal carcasses.

Pernas came to the internet's attention via his conversations with Levi Dane Simmons ('SnakeThing'). There, Pernas shared with Simmons photographic and video zoosadist content. After the recent Zoosadism Leaks, 'woof' found himself as the most notorious member of the exposed ring owing to the almost unique levels of depravity of the content he shared with Simmons.

Documented Zoosadism

Unknown Dog #1

In this abridged of his conversation with SnakeThing on 22nd May 2018, woof describes what he did to this dog. The logs have been edited for brevity/clarity:

woof: Those pics are actually my own stuff from last weekend.
woof: She has a tight pussy
SnakeThing: Has, or had? Giggles :P
woof: She was a pitbul that I found last Friday and was a virgin also woof: Removed he tits and inserted some in ass, others in pussy, then batfucked ass to pussy. Made her eat one or two of her tits. batfucked her throat too.
SnakeThing: Ooh. Should've gotten a male doggo to rape'er, to. :P
Always wanted to see some dog on dog rougher-esque stuff before. Human intervention, to, with that in mind. :P
woof: lol Also chopped off her tail and used it to fuck her pussy.
woof: Amazingly, she was still standing after the batfuck. Chopped off her head and then removed her pussy with the tail still inserted inside.
woof: Not sure if a dog's dick inside a severed puppy's head have been done before.

SnakeThing: Are you saying that's the thing you did or are you saying that it hasn't been done generally? xD woof: I'm saying both woof: This was used with her

woof: A wooden toy used to fuck a virgin bitch. Honey was applied to it a few hours before so that fire ants would cover the toy. it was shoved into a virgin bitch pussy minutes later.

woof: Forgot to say that the pussy, once removed, was fucked by a dog and was left stuck behind the knot for a while.

woof shared with SnakeThing a set of photographs fully documenting this process, which appeared in the logs. In these photographs, woof took pains (as he would in the other major set) to blur/censor his arms and feet.

Unknown Dog #2

woof details what he did to this puppy below. As with the account of Unknown Dog #1, this corresponds with the images of what happened to this puppy in the logs.

woof: I got the pussy [editor's note: referring to her genitals, not species] from a charity group. I had her one night at home and moved here to where the fun would take place next morning. it was a forest like area, with trees and the like. The lil pup was a female about a month or less old. She was small. she was put on the floor and a log was set. she was bonded to that log and was fucked with a wooden toy in ass and pussy. pussy was cut with a small blade to allow better access and fucked hard and deep so that you could see the toy poking out in her belly. Eventually ass and pussy became one single hole and the pussy was removed. She was beheaded and her head used as a cumdump for human and dog creampie alike. Her tail was removed too. Her head, pussy and tail are now frozen trophies inside a fridge.

While it initially seemed that this particular conversation in reference to Unknown Dog #1, the fact that Unknown Dog #1 was tortured and killed on a bench and not bound to a log suggests that he was actually speaking of this dog.

Documented Zoophilia

woof's Rottweilers

Under the username 'wolfss', Pernas has posted numerous photographs and videos on BeastForums of him fellating and administering/receiving penetrative sex from one of his rottweilers. woof owns and has owned several rottweilers, both males and females. To avoid clutter, we have condensed woof's rottweiler-related sex acts into this spoiler.

Below are the links to woof's BeastForum threads where he documents what he does to his rottweilers. These threads are all very explicit, and some contain zoophilic content from the get-go.

Videos

- 'VID_1.mp4' woof engages in vaginal sex with his rottweiler. [ <http://archive.is/dOtdh> ]
- 'ROTT_FUN.avi' woof is sodomised by his male rottweiler, lets it ejaculate in his mouth, and encourages his female rottweiler to lick his own and the male rottweiler's penises. [ <http://archive.is/QvnEY> ]

Photographs

- 'Male Dog Pics' – he fondles and stimulates his male rottweiler's penis. [ <http://archive.is/drVUe> ]

woof's German Shepherd

Under wolfss, Pernas has also molested and photographed his own German Shepherd on BeastForums.

Photographs

- 'My German Shepher Cock, Pics of gsd cock.' [ <http://archive.is/30e03> ]

This is believed to be the dog to which he attached the mutilated remnants of the vagina/anus of Unknown Dog #1.

Unknown Puppy

On the 19th of March 2018, as woof, Pernas wrote:

woof: Played with a 4 month old pup yesterday but only for a lil while. he humped really nice and had a beautiful cock. Wish I could spent more time with him to take some pics.

SnakeThing: Oooh. Did he mainly dom' you or did you dom' him as well? :3

woof: I dom him, But was really quick. I was visiting someone and was left alone with the pups for a few minutes while the owner was taking out his car. He could be a good dom with time :D

Then, woof details what he would do with the dog if he had more time with it:

SnakeThing: Ooooh. What'd you do with'em? c: Humped his muzzle? o=o woof: To start i'd fully pull back his sheath and lick his fully exposed knot to then tie it up with a cord and keep it hard for as long as I want, then, 'id play with his ball and tailhole. I'd restrain hi and put a metal ring with ductape in his mouth to make him lick my cock whether he likes it or no. I could cum in his mouth or eyes, play soft or hard with his balls and cock, etc....

woof: Could make another dog cum in his open mouth as well. His ass would get special treatment that's for sure.

Documented Zoonecrophillia

For concision, we have excluded re-describing what woof did to Unknown Dogs #1 and #2 in the 'Documented Zoosadism' section.

Unknown Dog Carcass

On May the 24th 2018, as woof, Pernas mentions briefly an incident of zoonecrophilia.

woof:I fucked a dead bith once. She wasn't hung tho and had a tight virgin pussy

Proving woof's identity

From the initial Zoosadist leaks, we could be reasonably sure of the following about woof

1. As he used Spanish language settings in Firefox, that he either spoke English as a second language to Spanish or fluently spoke in English and Spanish.
2. From comparative timings between himself and SnakeThing, he was a resident in an EST-equivalent timezone.
3. That he was friends with friends with Kevin Patrick Perlstein, also known as Illone.
4. He previously went by the handle 'Warg' on Telegram.

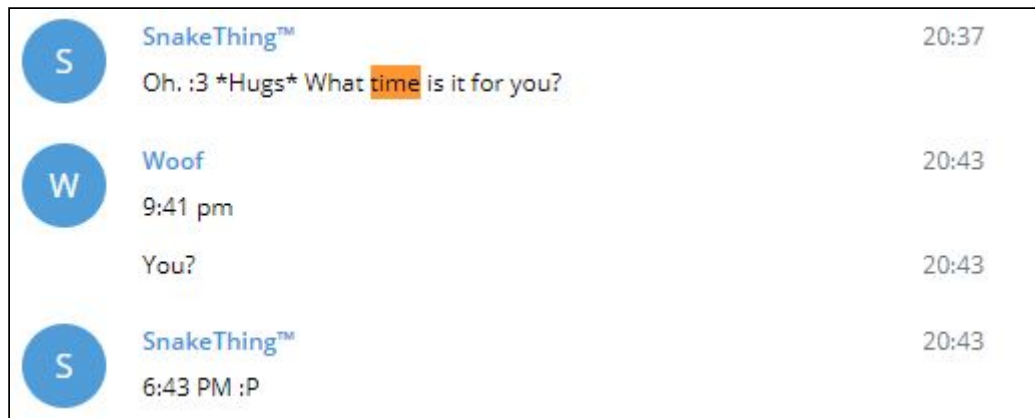

The following section details how from this initial data and from several hints in the logs that one can arrive at woof's true identity. If you are disinterested in this chain of reasoning, the final two spoilers under the 'Conclusion' section present us with a summary of the evidence and the final damning nail in the coffin - direct contact with woof.

woof is in Cuba

As per 1), woof used Spanish language settings in Firefox.

As per 2), woof had to be in EST owing to his relative timing to the PST-based SnakeThing:

There was no other hard data indicative of his location. The only other seemed tenuous and were much mocked at first. However, they in time proved vital to narrowing down woof's location to Cuba. These leads were:

- The flora and fauna seen in woof's pictures of zoosadism
- The ice cream parlour that woof photographed himself eating at and claimed that he regularly visited

The first was successfully narrowed down by a Farms user - someone managed to identify of the plants in woof's zoosadism evidence as mimosa trees, palms, and elephant ears. This restricted the field of search to the South-Eastern US and the Caribbean.

Archive:

<https://via.hypothes.is/https://kiw...osadism-megathread.47973/page-75#post-3795515>

That left the placematts. Much to the derision of many cynics, users began to start looking for ice cream parlours throughout the narrowed-down region.

Despite the incredibly low odds of locating the parlour and the derision and active opposition of many users, the unbelievable happened. The ice cream venue was identified as Heladeria Himalaya, in Havana, Cuba.

Archive:

The matts were a perfect match. It was beyond all reasonable doubt that woof was based in Cuba, and probably in Havana. This accounted for observations 1) and 2) - the Spanish-speaking and EST data - and also supported many observations made of the logs, such as woof watching the sunset set over the west and his temperamental internet connection.

wolfss

In the hours after the public discovery that woof was based in Cuba, anons trawled the web for accounts that matched the criteria of a zoophile/zoosadist based in that country. The focus was on users preoccupied with dogs or wolves, and more specifically someone with a loving of rottweilers (which woof describes in the logs as the dogs he finds most attractive).

A match was quickly found - a BeastForum account. BeastForum is a forum dedicated to discussing and proliferating materials pertaining to bestiality. A user who had documented sexual encounters with many dogs, including rottweilers.

Their name was wolfss, a 30 year old Cuban male. And while they later stripped their account of relevant information, anons successfully archived wolfss' page. This revealed wolfss' date of birth (12th July 1988 and email address (wolfschwarz39@gmail.com)).

BeastForum: <http://archive.li/7yu87> wolfss posted several videos of himself fellating, sodomising, and being sodomised by dogs. In one of the videos ('VID_1.mp4'), wolfss briefly slips the camera whilst having sex with his rottweiler and reveals his face.

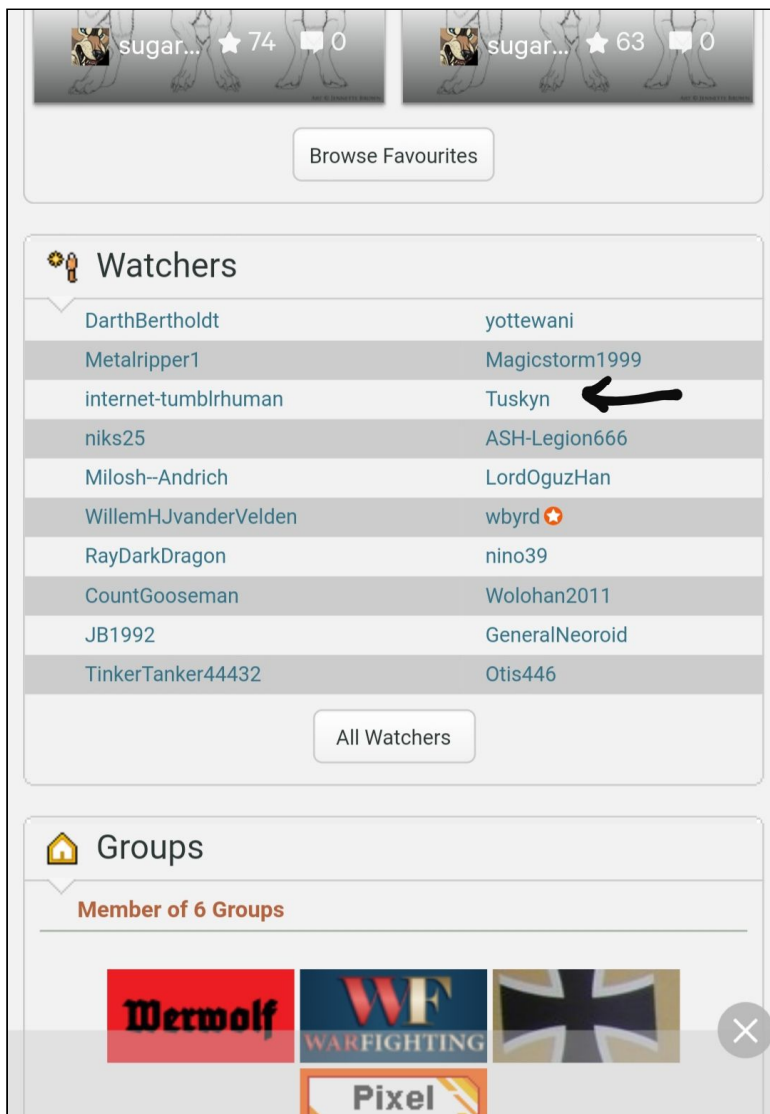

Quickly, a Google Plus account was discovered to be associated with wolfss' gmail account: Wolf Schwarz. Google Plus: <http://archive.is/zuiaI>

wolfss is Schwarzeiler

A casual google search of 'wolfschwarz39' reveals as its first result a DeviantArt page named Schwarzeiler.

DeviantArt: <http://archive.is/6nmkN>

Coincidentally the account is followed by Tuskyn, aka WolfyDNA, a user who was implicated in the zoosadist logs.

Also coincidentally, there is a FurAffinity account under that name.

FurAffinity: <http://archive.is/mzBJd>

However, it seems that the user removed some content from the FA's page favourites after the ice cream revelation but before the page was archived. The following two screencaps are from one anon who managed to get onto the FA profile before these were scrubbed (but forgot to archive the page). These indicate that the user was interested in sexual sadism against animals, particularly castration.

Returning to DeviantArt, the Google result in question is for a comment made by Schwarzweiler, in which they state that their email address is wolfschwarz39@gmail.com:

This user also states in another comment from two years beforehand that their email is schwarzwolf12@yahoo.es:

Schwarzweiler is Ruben Pernas

Without knowing it, wolfss/Schwarzweiler had independently tied up the zoophillia he engaged in on BeastForums with his real name.

Working Dog is a networking and advertising site for professionals who work with dogs. For those who register an account on Working Dog, the account under Ruben Pernas is somewhat barebones. He is simply a Cuban Male.

Ruben Pernas on Working Dog: <http://archive.is/X4pWu>

Behind Working Dog's paywall, however, the viewer sees that Ruben Pernas' email is schwarzwolf12@yahoo.es. And they see that his DOB matches the wolfss account. And they see his address.

Behind Working Dog's paywall, however, the viewer sees that Ruben Pernas' email is schwarzwolf12@yahoo.es. And they see that his DOB matches the wolfss account. And they see his address.

The screenshot shows the 'working dog' website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Livestreams, Caniva, Vouchers, and Magazin. A search bar is present with the text 'advanced search : Dogs | Members'. Below the navigation bar, there's a green header with links: Homepage, Dogs, Members, Videos, Breeds, Album, Results service, Event Center, and Premium. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled 'Ruben Pernas's data sheet' and contains a profile picture placeholder, a 'Contact request' button, and a 'Send message' button. The right column is titled 'Ruben Pernas's dogs' and contains a message: 'No dogs are associated with this member profile yet. Search for your dogs and add yourself as owner or breeder.' Below the profile data sheet, there's a banner for 'Alimentazione NATURALE per il tuo cane'.

Alimentazione NATURALE per il tuo cane

From this, we can tie wolfss/Schwarzweiler with a real name. Ruben Pernas.

Ruben Pernas is Ulfr

Ulfr is Old Norse for 'wolf'. There are several accounts named 'Ulfr' connected with a 30-year old Cuban male. One example is of the AgreGame Ulfr profile.

AgreGame: <http://archive.is/QgwiX>

This profile shows that the face of Ulfr matches the screncap of wolfss when he accidentally exposing his face during 'VID_1.mp4' on BeastForum:

In addition, in another 'Ulfr' profile which shares images with the other Ulfr profiles which were laid out at the top of this thread, there is the CubaRed profile of Ulfr. In the days following the ice cream parlour revelation, the user in question took pains to gut their profile, including scrubbing their earlier profile picture.

Thankfully, their feed was archived.

CubaRed Feed: <https://archive.fo/Nj11U>

Alongside exhibiting his love of Nordic body art and German Shepherds, Ulfr also engages in a comment chain which confirms that this Ulfr is the owner of the wolfschwarz39 gmail account (and thus, wolfss), is interested in meeting like-minded people on Telegram, and states that he has unorthodox sexual interests.

For concision, we have separated out this comment chain into Appendix B, which is featured at the end of this document.

Interestingly, we see from Ulfr an association between the taboo/transgressive and creative expression. Alongside this, there is an idealisation of an 'internal society' that is governed by its own law - a close-knit group of like-minded people who care for not for the law of the outside.

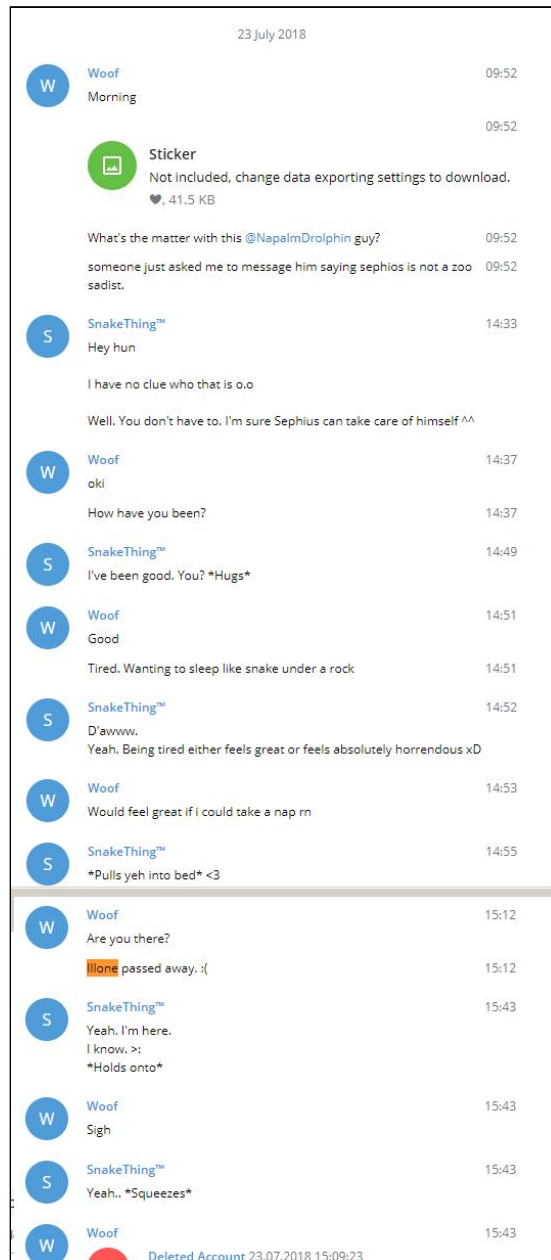

This isn't unexpected for Ruben Pernas, who we know is the BeastForums poster wolfss.

Is it possible to connect these two people: Ruben Pernas/wolfss/Ulfr, with the zoosadist known as woof?

Warg Schwarz

A lead on this arises from a conjunction of facts 3) and 4) which we began with: that woof was friends with Illone, and that he also went by the handle of 'Warg' at some point.

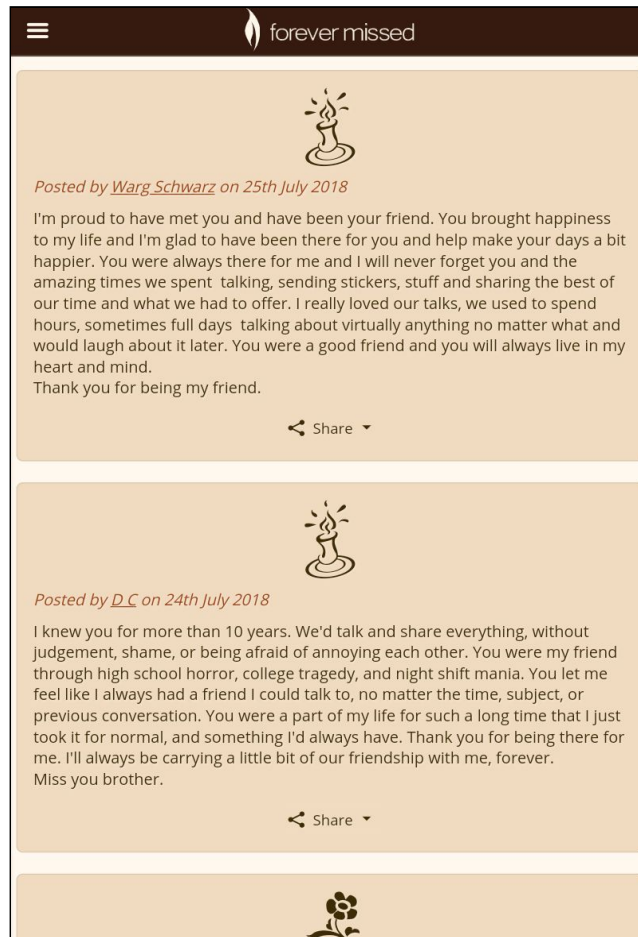

On the 23rd of July, woof learned of the death of Illone. We know this is when he discovered Perlstein's death, as he abruptly changed the tone of an ongoing conversation with SnakeThing to discuss it:

For more information about Illone, there was a good post in Kero's thread in KF:

KF on Illone: <http://archive.is/K4eUW>

Two days later, on July the 25th, a user named Warg Schwarz posted a tribute on Illone's memorial page:

Memorial Link:

<https://archive.is/20180926104729/https://www.forevermissed.com/kevin-perlstein/>

Two things of interest lie in this message.

- Schwarz and Illone frequently exchanged 'stickers'. We know that woof prolifically sent stickers to SnakeThing in their Telegram conversations, and thus this would fit the profile of woof's communiques with another close friend.
- The name 'Warg Schwarz'. Five days after learning of Illone's death (Jul 28th), woof himself states to SnakeThing that he and Illone used to talk frequently under woof's old main account – 'Warg'.

Warg is an Anglicisation of the Norse word vargr. In Norse mythology, these creatures are particularly menacing sub-species of wolves; there are three named vargrs in Norse myth – Fenrir, Sköll, and Hati.

As Wikipedia also notes, Warg is used as a synonym for wolf or as a designator for a large and particularly intimidating wolf in a variety of contexts across pop-culture and genre fiction.

Wikipedia: <https://via.hypothes.is/https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Warg>

Comparing Ruben with woof

Now, let's focus back on Ruben Pernas' CubaRed account:

CubaRed Archive: <https://archive.fo/Nj11U>

On the extant profile, we can see that he has expressed an interest for sadomasochism. Take a look at the profile page for 'Parejo_Sw' (literal translation: 'Couple_Sw'), which posts about sadomasochistic sexual preferences. We see several likes by Ulfr of their pro-S&M content.

Couple_Sw's CubaRed:

<https://via.hypothes.is/https://www.cubared.com/?p=muro&u=109676>

Translating, we find an interesting comment from Pernas dated the 30th of March 2018.

'There are no real limits. In reality it is the end of creativity, or conditions of mutual agreement, which limits. Pleasure and pain are indivisible.'

Compare this with the logs and the earlier CubaRed comment chain where Pernas reveals his Gmail account and connects his identity with Ulfr. Both Pernas and woof seem to strongly associate sadistic sexual practices with pushing the boundaries of creativity. From the logs:

One thing we should note is that in the days following the narrowing down of the search to Cuba after the ice cream discovery the CubaRed profile was substantially altered. The previous furry art that had served as his profile picture was taken down, alongside all other images apart from he took of a lake (which appears on many of the other Ulfr profiles).

However, Pernas did not alter his CubaRed profile's biography. Note the parts bolded and coloured blood red.

I'm not good for profiles> <According to those who know me, I'm more like a lone wolf. I do not usually socialize much. But I worry about those who are part of my pack.

Basically my interests are these:

Camping, hiking, mountain climbing, abseiling, weapons, knives and tactical equipment, video games, books / magazines of interest, camouflage, exploration, tunnels, stuff zoo and furry, castles, forests. others ...

Animals. Wolves, German Shepherds, Rottweilers, bears, hyenas, foxes ...

PC and video games (shooters, RPG, horror survival, strategy etc ...) I am something Nerd with video games.

Movies, action, science fiction, horror, aventuras, fantastic, historical.

Draw on the PC

Music: rock, metal, instrumental, celtic, viking, pagan, dark music, snuff porn gore, grindgore ...

Books / stories / art related to wolves, dragons, sergals, furry, anthro, gargolas ....

As part of his musical tastes, Pernas has listed 'snuff porn gore'. Maybe this was a mistranslation? No. Those words are present verbatim in the Spanish original.

Musica: rock, metal, instrumental, celta, viking, pagan, dark music, snuff porn gore, grindgore...

We also have the banner art of Pernas' CubaRed profile.

reverse image search yields a source – a DeviantArt upload entitled ‘hati and skoll celtic knots’:

DA Archive:

<https://via.hypothes.is/https://www.deviantart.com/vesner/art/hati-and-skoll-celtic-knots-126635606>

The artist explains that the piece depicts Hati and Sköll – two of the three named wargs of Norse myth.

Going back to woof’s logs, it can be seen that he mentions replacing electric equipment at some point in his career:

S	SnakeThing™	17:12
	I hope work went well for you :3
W	Woof	17:13
	Yes I did everything as planned.
	How was your day?	17:13
S	SnakeThing™	17:13
	Good!!! :3
	My day was good hun. Still tired but I'm good. Yours?
W	Woof	17:15
	You need a nap :P My day was busy. We are replacing electronic equipment at work and it's tricky. lol
S	SnakeThing™	17:15
	Hah. Nah. Is okie.
	Aww. Well, I hope that went well and continues to go well/smoothly :3

Now examine Pernas' Devoted Singles profile:

Devoted Singles: <http://archive.fo/KOmFb>

There, he states in response to the question “What I am doing with my life”:

Just working everyday with a MRIscanner at a scientific facility, taking the chance to camp and hike with my german shepherd or my rottweiler when I can.

Hence, he has worked, like woof, with electrical equipment.

And also, note:

I have a big attraction for military stuff, guns, rappel, hunting (for food) and military dog training (I worked with a K9unit and the work with the dogs was fantastic)

Pernas has past experience with lots of dog work.

And:

I'm part of a group that helps rescue stray/homeless dogs and we treat them and take care of them until we find new homes.

Pernas has frequent access to the very sorts of strays that woof tortured, killed, and mutilated.

Ruben Pernas is woof

A later leak from the zoophiles who outed the Zoosadists, independent of our investigation, corroborates the association of Ruben Pernas and the address discovered on Working Dogs with the Gmail/Yahoo accounts associated with wolfss.

One of the zoophiles who leaked the zoosadist logs, who hadn't cleared his logs in some time, released this screencap which they claimed that woof shared with him in early 2017. It was for an appointment for a US visa. As can be seen, the visa appointment is under the name 'Ruben Marrero Pernas'.

The Telegram user Some Internet Rando, who served as an intermediary and a party to the zoosadist leaks, provided this information soon after the Cuba was raised as woof's location.

Some Internet Rando

6:22:36 AM

I found it. Another one of us is paranoid and never clears logs.

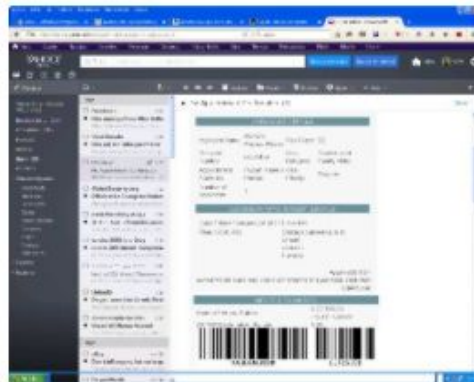

Some Internet Rando

6:22:47 AM

DELETED Jan 31, 2017 10:20:59 AM

Some Internet Rando

6:25:37 AM

DELETED Jan 31, 2017 10:20:45 AM

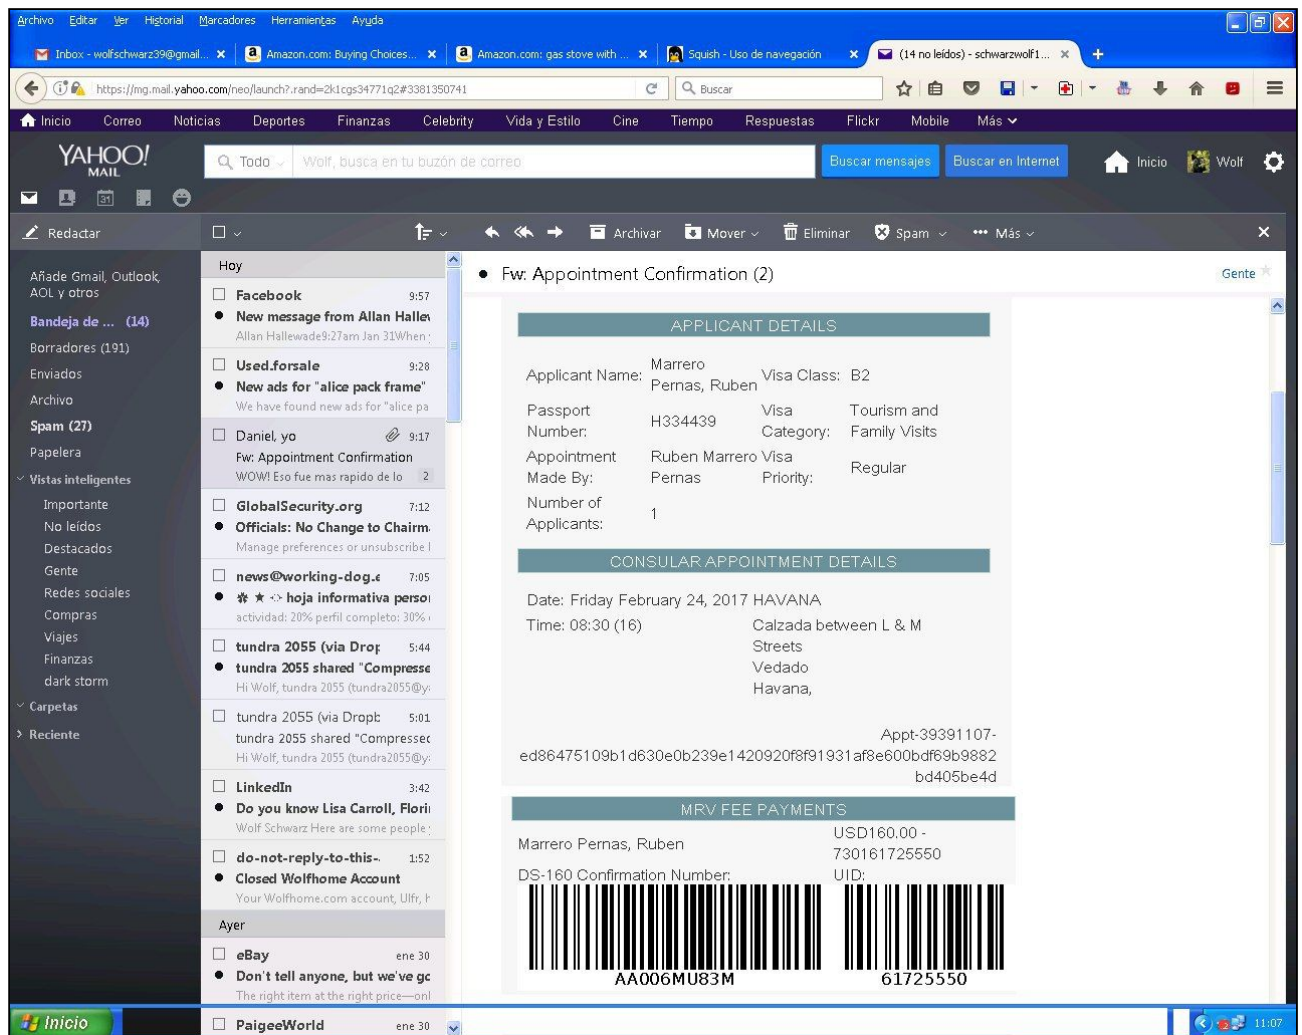

I've been informed that I have my consular appointment interview by Friday February 24, 2017

Some Internet Rando

6:26:03 AM

That is his personal info.

Whoever took this screen capture had to be scrolled down viewing their own visa appointment. This is because:

- the first name in a Yahoo correspondent line shows the latest respondent to the email chain, who is 'Daniel', and not the earlier responder, 'yo' (ie, 'You', the Yahoo account holder)
- the [2] in the subject field indicates that there are no more than two emails (including the sender's own) in the chain
- for FW to be the subject line means that the first email in the chain was the one that was forwarded; forwarding an email starts a new chain

Thus, the user logged into schwarzwolf12@yahoo.es at the time screencapped his own visa appointment. And a zoophile who knew and interacted with woof and is involved in outing zoosadists forwarded this screenshot, with the deleted TG account holder (who said zoophile alleges was woof) stating that it was their visa appointment.

The name and address on the visa appointment corroborates the one found on the Working Dog profile. The appointment was scheduled well before the zoosadist leaks became public. The Yahoo account is the same used by Pernas to register for a Working Dogs profile.

From the same source that released the visa appointment, there was also further suggestion as to woof's identity - a screen capture of a DebMoney referral link which woof sent.

DebMoney was a marketing referral scheme that has since been taken down. In the screencap, see the full name of Ruben Pernas, his address, and a full cell phone number.

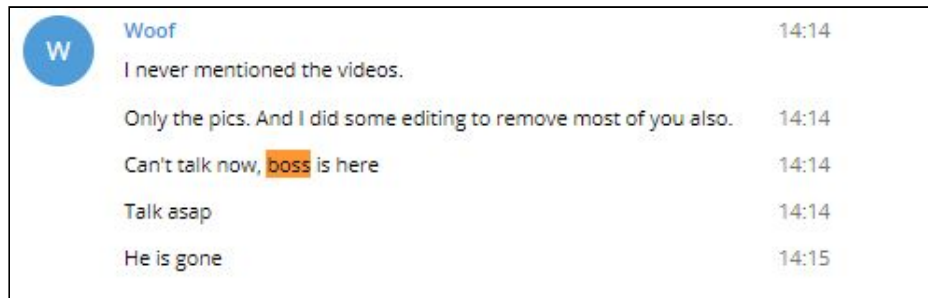

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying `debmoney.club/paylist.php`. The page has a blue header with the site name "DebMoney.Club" and a navigation menu. The main content area is divided into a left sidebar and a central panel. The sidebar contains a "USER LOGIN" section with a welcome message for "Vrelik", showing an earned amount of 152.9 $, 1 referral attracted, and 0 $ earned by referrals. It also has a "JOIN US NOW" section and a "NEWS" section with several dated announcements. The central panel displays a "Withdrawal of earned funds" section with the text "Your withdrawal requests" and "Through Western Union transfer amount: 150.00 $". It includes a status message "The request is approved and ready for withdrawal !" and instructions for withdrawing money, stating that 40 referrals are required. Below this is a "Payment details" section with a table containing the following information:

Country	Cuba
First Name	Ruben
Last Name(s)	Marrero Pernas
Address	18310 K Street Monterrey Ciudad de la Habana Cuba.
Phone no.	+53 54711157
Amount	150.00 $

The browser's download bar at the bottom shows several files, including "Sd.kfz._222_Leichter_...JPG", "Sd.kfz.222_-_reconstr....JPG", "491264c8f6d81493aad....jpg", "beltring2009c (95).jpg", and "beltring2007 (309).jpg".

Unlike the other screencap, it's undated (although taken after September 13th 2017, as per the DebMoney newsfeed), and taken on a different browser than the Spanish Firefox associated with woof, with the identified Chrome user being "Eduardo".

However, this would make sense if it was taken on a different computer than the other screenshots. We know that woof likely used more than one computer, as he mentions chatting to SnakeThing at work.

It also corroborates the other information that we have from Working Dog identifying wolfschwarz39/schwarzwolf12 as Ruben Pernas, especially the phone number.

This is because the cell phone number given on DebMoney is linked to the wolfschwarz39 Gmail account; upon going through the "forgotten account" process and entering that number, Gmail sends a verification text. It only will do so for the number listed on DebMoney.

Of course, numbers associated with accounts can be changed. But this number also is likely associated with the schwarzwolf Yahoo account - the number tied to verification also ends in 57.

Thus, there is no room for doubt. Barring there being a systematic, long-term effort to deceive investigators which relied on...

- hiding misinformation behind a paywall on a niche dog professional networking site for several years
- beginning the effort in January 2017 at the latest, more than 18 months before the zoosadist leaks
- gaining control of a Yahoo historically tied to a prolific BeastForums user (and indeed features messages from Tundra2055, a registered BeastForums user)
- sharing photographs that corresponded with the BeastForums user on social media sites under the name 'Ulfr'
- said deception only likely being necessary if investigators were searching Cuba for suspicious possible zoosadists in the first place
- simultaneously exposing several other actors who can independently be verified as being zoosadists themselves

...Ruben Pernas must be woof.

Given how unlikely and convoluted the alternative is, then, it is our judgement that there is no reasonable doubt that Ruben Pernas, aka wolfss, aka Ulfr, is the zoosadist known as woof.

Conclusion

So, on the one hand, we have woof. They:

- are based in Cuba
- are sexually sadistic (and record it)
- prey on strays
- associate their sexuality with creativity
- have worked with electrical equipment
- engages sexual activity with animals outside of zoosadist
- are particularly fond of Rottweilers
- have named an alt after a mythical Norse wolf (a warg)
- use Telegram to communicate with fellow zoosadists/zoophiles and spread their content
- have many connections in the zoophile community
- have two screenshots attributed to them (at least one from 2017), associating them by zoosadist leakers with 'Ruben Marrero Pernas'

Let us look at wolfss, Ulfr, and Schwarzweiler.

They are one person, as these accounts are tied together by a shared Gmail address which each publicly states is its own, either in biographical information or in comments.

As Schwarzweiler, they also indicated this person as far back as 2015 owned a Yahoo account are tied with a professional profile behind a paywall identifying them as 'Ruben Pernas'.

Who is this Ruben? Well, he:

- is based in Cuba
- has filmed himself engaging in bestiality (as wolfss on BeastForum)
- has expressed an interest in sexual sadism
- has worked with with strays
- has framed his sexuality as creative exploration
- has worked with electrical equipment
- has a particular fondness for Rottweilers
- has named an alt after a Norse wolf (ulfr) and posts artwork depicting wargs
- is acquainted with Telegram
- has stated that he likes 'snuff porn gore'
- gutted much of his accounts from late last week, corresponding with the ice cream parlour discovery

- has had screenshots of a visa appointment in his email inbox shared by those who claim he is woof, with the address on the appointment slip corroborating the address publicly attributable to Pernas
- has had screenshots of his phone number shared by those who claim he is woof, with said phone numbers corresponding to verification numbers of his two email addresses

We have evidence that stretches back over a decade. We know Ruben Pernas is an animal abuser, as wolfss. We know he is affiliated in some way with the zoosadists, as they have screenshots of the contents of his email inbox in the form of a visa appointment.

This is compelling. However, there is more.

To determine whether or not woof was Ruben Pernas, it was decided that direct contact should be made. Emails were sent to both the associated Yahoo and Gmail accounts.

A reply was received from wolfschwarz39@gmail.com - this is the Gmail account which is associated with the wolfss and Ulfr identities.

After several emails, it was arranged that a friend of woof - who is associated with the zoophilliac leakers and was eager to extract information from woof - join a private Telegram room to discuss the accusations and communicate our intentions to woof. Through this friend woof sent some information (mostly already known) about zoosadist activity.

Then, this friend agreed to put us in contact with woof. A user named 'test 010' joined us and sent an .rtf document. The document in question perfectly matches the samples we have of long-form writing of Ulfr and woof (including using forward-slashes to break up text).

That wolfschwarz39@gmail.com did not deny the accusations emailed to him – but only tried to excuse himself – is telling. That he did not correct being called “Ruben Pernas” in correspondence is telling. The .rtf document in question, which featured the email address used to contact him, could only have reached the accusers if the owner of the Gmail account had read their correspondence.

The 4177-word document that was sent was entitled 0001.rtf. It is reproduced below in Appendix A. Some redactions and edits have been made to facilitate ongoing and future investigations into zoosadist groups. All redactions are indicated by square brackets.

This is a long email and I will separate it's parts using /////.

I understand your concerns and how difficult it is for you and your team/friends to believe in my sincerity after everything I did and said. I assure you and promise that I DO REGRET FOR EVERYTHING I DID. I PROMISE THAT I WILL NOT DO THE THINGS I DID EVER AGAIN. I ASSURE YOU I'M NEITHER A THREAT NOR A DANGER. I want to find peace and with your help, leave the past buried so that I can start a new life away from my old life. We can stay in contact for as long as I have internet if you want. I have no problems with that and we can talk on telegram if that is ok.

Mr. [Redacted], I don't see you as my enemy but I admit I fear you. I wrote this down telling the truth in everything I wrote but I fear the uncertainty. I don't know what you will say. I confess that I'm not sure what your true intentions are and if you don't seek revenge on me as you said or if all you want is burn me to ashes even after I said that I regret for everything. I don't know who to trust and what to think at this point.

I'm doing my best to help you understand who I'm I and the events that led us here.

I truly left the wrong path and everything I used to be and do. I left darkness behind and I don't want to return to it in all my days on this earth. I have prayed god at night asking forgiveness for my evil acts. And have told my closest friend of what I did. I do want to be a new man with all my heart. You saw animal stuff but I saw more than that. Thinking about it makes me cry because I wasn't able to see the true nature of what I was doing, seeing and listening. It was like a spell. Like two people living in the same body while one could not control the actions of the other.

To tell the truth, that's a lifestyle that even if you are not caught is a hollow horrible life. You turn into a monstrosity and everything changes without you even noticing. Before you know it you have turned into filth and all values and limits are gone. I don't know how to describe it. It's too hard to explain.

I will explain how it started and how it ended.

The only reason I decided to stay and message [woof's friend] was because I realized that what I did was wrong beyond all scale for evil things and wanted to apologize with him and let him know that I regretted for what I did. Why him? He always was very good to me and I wanted to talk one last time with him. We were friends in not distant past, very good friends. I'd stay up all night not going home to just video chat with him and was awesome. Also wanted to let my old friends know that I was sorry about everything and that I feel I disappointed them all with my actions.

I don't know if [friend] still sees me as a friend but I truly thank him for taking the time to read my letter. He is someone I'll never forget. I hold good feelings for him and my old friends although I know I'll not talk to them again. [Friend] and my friends that I met years ago were very good to me and they will be in my memory for ever.

I said to him when he asked (He can confirm) that I'd just stay sitting here waiting for the hammer to fall full force on me.

I'm not in position to ask for anything but I'd like these messages/emails to remain private and that any of this will never be published in public.

I will also include a message/letter I sent to my friend [friend] days ago where I explain many things and apologize for everything. That letter was also an apology to my old friends that I met many years ago before I took the wrong path.

That letter was the result of my conclusions after analyzing everything I had done to that day both good and bad, and decided that the path I had taken was not the right thing and not what I wanted for my present life and the future.

This was my letter/message to him:

This message was written to clarify some things and to apologize.

I beg you, read it through. I'm not asking for forgiveness. I'm just explaining my sad story.

First off, I want this message to stay private. This is only for you. You will do whatever you want in the end but since this is a personal message I'd like you keep it to yourself. I want to apologize for many things. I have known you for some time now and we were good friends. We used to talk a lot and I did enjoy our talking. It was me who didn't have much to say most of the time but still loved to talk with you. I don't see you as my enemy and don't have bad feelings for you, but circumstances most likely have made you hate me at this point. I've done bad things and I want to apologize for that. I'm apologizing about everything. I feel really bad because I disappointed many good friends like [redacted] among others. I'll never forget so many years ago when I met you, [redacted]. I said to them that I didn't have any friends to talk with and they made a small group and invited me so that we could talk, share things and enjoy the best each one of us in the group had to offer. I saw as the group grew up with new members like [redacted]. Don't know if he is still around but his comments were funny. I remember they wanted to mail me some money for my birthday. I didn't say much at the time but their generosity and friendship was heart touching and is something I have present in my mind to this day.

They must hate as well and I understand why. I just wanted to say that they have a special place in my memory and heart. I'm sorry that things ended up this way. I wasn't like this when we met years ago. I stepped into the dark side led by curiosity and a rumor of places where that which you'd think was impossible was actually possible. I did search in secret and after some time, came across places so dark that many would have nightmares for the rest of their lives if they could see what's in there. Reality would turn unreality and any concept of what good and evil is would just vanish. There were no boundaries, no limits. I was shocked by what I saw and the more I saw it the more I got into it.

The dark world is something peculiar you know. The moment you find it your soul rips in half. A part of you hates it and want to leave it but the other part wants to embrace it and stay. An inner fight takes place in you like to animals fighting.

The problem is that after some time seeing hellish things, you start to see it as just something else not paying special interest to it anymore and even if you see others doing dark things it won't cause any effect on you. Feels like if a dark spell had been cast upon you. I can't describe it in any other way.

Now the recent events had a good effect on me albeit a painful one. Reading through posts of people who found leaked content realized that some of the things done were horrible and cruel beyond any possible scale. Their posts made me see things from a different perspective. The perspective of normal loving people made me realize that without noticing I turned into a monster. I was a lurker for the most part. In all that time only did two bad acts for someone else. Contrary to what most people believe, I did not enjoy what I did. It made sad actually and haunted my thoughts for a long time. What made it bearable to some degree was seeing people happy for what I had done which made me feel like it was nothing to worry about and the fact that both animals were stray, in a very sorry state and would have died anyway.

People's comments made me see the world from my former perspective and broke the spell. The dark places are now gone and just like those places I'm leaving my old life in the past. I'm starting a new life away from everything and will not look back into anything dark in all my days. From now on I want to have a normal life like a normal person and try to forget the past as best as I can.

I made mistakes and was taught a lesson. Lost my friends and will surely have lots of troubles coming my way in the near future. Anyway, I just wanted to apologize for everything and say good bye to my friends.

Want to tell you some stories and a bit about me and dogs.

As I said before I was always an animal lover in the right way. I was born and raised countryside surrounded by animals and loved animals since a short age. Loved and took care of countless animals in my childhood, adolescence and adulthood. I took care of dogs for the most part. Mostly dogs that had been neglected by my neighbors. Helped them in any way I could but was frustrating at times because many owners would not support what I was doing and saw animals die for no reason.

Someone I knew, a neighbor next to my grandma's house had two beautiful Doberman pups. I loved them. They were so elegant and kind. Always up for jumping playing and running all over the place. One afternoon, the female got a horrible beaten only because she stood up on her hind legs and stole some food item from the table. Suffice to say she came bleeding and I wanted to beat the owner really bad but my mom didn't let me. This was when I was in high school. One day she got sick with gastroenteritis and her owner left her to die. I offered my savings to buy her in hopes to take to the vet and save her but her owner said no and she died lying against the fence. The male, was killed some months later when they hit him with their car. They didn't take the time to take him to the vet. At least I stayed there with him till the end. I never forgot them. Their names were Shira and Simba. As a tribute to their memory I put two SS after my name on BF, meaning Wolf Shira and Simba.

The first breed that I had was a stray Doberman. She had a TVT commonly known as a venereal tumor that had not been treated for years and therefore she was in pretty bad condition when I found her. She was active and all but had a hole as wide as a fist in her shoulder and her parts were in bad condition.

She lived around a trash yard where she'd feed on rotten food and the like. One afternoon after I saw her I brought up a pizza that I bought for her and she loved it. That simple act marked the start of our friendship as I started buying pizzas for her almost on a daily basis. She later moved after me and made sort of "nest" in an empty space full of trees next to my home and I made a wooden house for her to keep her dry from rain and fresh from the sun. She lived there and I fed her with dog meat, egg and vegetables every day making her gain some weight. My mom didn't like her with her wounds but she agreed to accept her at home if I could cure her. Took her to the vet but they said the cancer was too advanced to do anything so I did have her and made her as happy as I could for as long as was possible.

I picked up another stray sometime later and called her Schwarz. She was a Doberman mix and a really happy girl. All black and tan, with a tail like a pointer but shorter and large ears folded back like bat wings. By happy I mean a dog that is hyper active and loves running and going out for walks. Schwarz was how I named her and we were very happy. I miss those days.

She passed away because my mom made me fix her and she got tetanus most likely to reused blades/needles and stuff. Our vet clinics are usually located in garages and places that are not very suitable for such activities. I cried lots when she got sick and passed away. I did everything in my power to save her.

I could continue telling stories of dogs that I had but I don't think you are interested in stories. Some of the best and most loyal friends I have had were dogs. They have loved me with everything and have been the only ones that have welcomed me wagging tails when my family and everyone else have turned their back on me. I've done the same for my dogs. I've been loyal to them day and night. They are my pack. When bad things happen and you don't know where to look, my dogs are the only ones that have been there for me. I really mean it. I'm a dog person. I love dogs even if my recent acts seem to state the opposite.

I was not into anything dark some months ago. A proof of this is the fact that I shared all sort of personal information with many friends both furs and zoos. I did not have any secret at the time, nothing to be afraid of. My nature is to be a very communicative friendly person who likes to talk with friends and share anything. From pics of what I cooked for dinner last night to the beautiful landscapes in the mountains. I've been sharing stuff for years. This tells you that I had nothing to hide. Had I been into dark things before, I'd never shared any real life info with them.

This is how my path into the dark started and how it ended. This is my true story and I hope this can serve to prevent others from following my path, a path that leads to self-destruction and pain for oneself and others.

Mr. [Redacted]. If you want to understand what made me do the things I did here it is.

I felt curiosity for dark things after hearing rumors of hidden places where things one would never believe could happen were actually real. Some called it wonderland. Heard of places where reality would turn into unreality. Heard stories of something called, dark web or deep web. I had heard about it in movies but never in real life. Anyway, I started my search for those places in secret and eventually found "mirrors" of those places on telegram. I saw all sort of things that I will not mention here and that I'd rather had never seen... I was introduced to sick music like Bushpig, Snuffporn Gore, Butcher's harem, and other very dark music.

I came to places like:

[Redacted].

Those and other places are on Telegram and are real. In all those months I found a few animal groups compared to the darker ones.

I was in shock when I saw what was in those places. If any of you have been there you will know what I talk about and I don't mean just about animals.

I saw people so dark that animal cruelty would seem like child' splay compared to the things they did. I saw people who would self-inflict mutilation and wounds in their own bodies with their own hands and cutting tools. I saw a video of someone who removed his own parts...Artists of flesh as I was told they called themselves. I saw all kind of pics about dark, places, rituals, blood gore death, things that it is best not to look at and music that I wish I had never listened.

I was told if you want to find wonderland, you must go all the way down the rabbit's hole. They didn't say that wonderland would brand my soul.

Wonderland should actually be called hell land. I was told many things like "Light blinds your eyes, darkness enlights your mind" I was told many thing that twisted my mind and personality. It was a world of depravity and insanity beyond any conception a normal person can have.

Those places and people had an effect on me; my soul was ripping in half. A part wanted to desperately leave. The other wanted to stay. Was a mix of curiosity/hate for those things but was much more and deeper... I was conflicted with myself. A big internal struggle took place in me day and night. Like two opposing forces. Every time I'd ask about it, they'd say it was normal and that would pass away eventually.

Eventually I told to myself it was just my head playing tricks on me because of what I was seeing and after some time, things like gore, death, and all kind of darkness seemed as normal as looking at a fruit hanging from a tree. It was not like I wanted to do any of that in real life but the shock effect those things once had in my person was now gone. Replaced by just apathy or maybe indifference if that is the right word.

I still had good feelings in me. Still loved animals, I had loyalty to my true friends and the like but my indifference to gore, blood and death increased and indifference became obvious. Also started spending more time away from my good old friends from telegram. The ones I talk about above. They are amazing people!!! I would spend more time alone at times. I was changing. I could notice but I could not find out what it was or how to stop it.

There were several dark groups and channels. Many were public at first but became private/secret some time later. I didn't go to those places looking for anything specific other than rare pictures and music, but after some months of brainwash my mind had changed. Although I didn't know it, I had been molded to indifference for what I would find later. I was a wanderer for the most part. A lurker when one day someone posted a video of animal stuff which was different to others I had seen involving humans. It was after someone mentioned the word animal referring to the video that I understood what animal cruelty is. This new topic caught my curiosity as I had seen dark things with humans but never with animals. It was that, what opened Pandora's Box and led me to my demise.

I was introduced to some people into animal animal some time later. The things they did was not nearly what I had seen done to/with humans and dead bodies. It was just some light and often faked bondage and dildo play. I was told this was cruelty. Only saw pictures of this and mostly pics of legs tied in normal position. Not uncomfortable ones that I could see.

Someone invited me to a group some time later and saw more of the same. I looked the same stuff for months not seeing anything new aside from old pics that were traded by people at times.

One day new people joined. They were Shady people. They posted hard pictures that even I had a hard time looking at. This was more similar to Zapp S'kred than anything else and made me wonder if they came from there. One of them said to know the producer. Unlike everyone else, these people liked gore and cruelty and were secretive. They would only say a few words from time to time. I didn't like those things even at that point but I was just indifferent.

One day I was asked to produce two videos for them. They said everything they'd like to see. I had fear of what I heard. They said they would reward me with things I could not dream of.

I did as they wanted. It tore me apart, but I did it. I cheated on them though and lessened things as much as I could. What I got as reward were nightmares for weeks, constant depression and the inability to talk of this to anyone.

They praised me for what I did, were more than happy in their own words. One day they vanished. Their accounts said DELETED.

Took me a long time to recover. Other gore lovers said that I should not worry about it that it was nothing...

I didn't do anything dark after that but I did stay telling fake stories in a failed attempt to feel any better. My internal conflict had since increased ever since. But again it was partially stopped by people telling me that it was ok and was nothing. I was living in a world of darkness.

One day everything was discovered. It didn't matter much until I heard people were very angry to say the least. I didn't understand why until I saw their comments but even after that, I was still trying to figure out why they were so angry. It took me two days to realize why. I was still looking at things from the angle of the dark people and world where I had been the last months. The moment I looked at things and facts from the angle of normal people was like a veil had been removed from my mind and eyes and I cried alone for days, especially at night because I understood the nature of the things I did.

I regretted for everything and wrote a letter to an old friend. It was too late though. I was beyond salvation. The world hated me and I was a monster, an aberration of nature and all. But at least I was conscious of the things I did. I was free now.

I was told to leave, hide and regroup. I said I'd stay and that I'd leave everything behind. Never again I'd step on the path of darkness and evil. Nothing could change the past but maybe I could have a remote chance to change the future.

I said a to a good old friend that I was grateful to the people who called me a monster and that stood up against me because it was thank to them that I saw my mistakes and I asked him to make my message public for everyone to see.

Many bad people are sent to jail every day, many are locked for years, but how many truly change their minds and regret the bad things they did? I don't have an answer for that.

I don't know what the future will bring for me. I don't know if those who know hold power over me will really give me the opportunity to start a new life rather than burn me to ashes as revenge one me but what I do know is that I have regretted for my past actions and that I credit and thank those who did everything in their power to find me and set me free.

That is how it ended.

My advice: Look not only for the dark animals groups but for the human dark groups also. Those groups make you ready to do worst things you can think of. Those places corrupt your mind and who you are and are like a drug. Once you get in you can't get out easy.

I know the things I did cannot be undone or forgiven. You have the power to destroy me at any time. I'm just asking for a second chance. I'm no longer a threat nor now or in the future.

Don't do as I did. Please have mercy for that which mercy did not have.

Good day to you.

Appendix B - 'Trios for friendship and also sex'

In this comment chain, Ulfr confirms that he is owner of the wolfschwarz39 gmail account (and thus, is the zoophile known as wolfss), and is interested in meeting like-minded people on Telegram. He also states that he has unorthodox sexual interests.

Ulfr (23 March 2018)

Hi: 3 My friend and I are looking for a girl or two open-minded girls to share tastes, hobbies and do high-level things. The 18 years and I 28. Both Caucasian white, tall, wild and mind of mind. Unpredicted mind means that there are no limits other than the end of the imagination. The limits that are put by mutual agreement are simple conditioning, totally understandable and respectable therefore. It has been very funny to me that many people say they are open-minded and after talking to them they tell you that they are little puppies next to you. : 3 We are great people. We simply have ideas and ways of thinking that are not usually common in Cuba. You can contact us at wolfschwarz39@gmail.com
I wish you all a good day: 3

Ulfr (3 April 2018)

I would say that when you have or create your own reality. Define as open mind, the ability of a person to achieve a mental state such that, no matter how exotic the things you hear or see, they do not cause a negative reaction, but rather be able to appreciate the things in a neutral way Usually when I talk about having open mints, it means that you do not have in your eyes bandages of any kind that distort the way the information reaches you. What are bandages? There are many types, religious, political, social, cultural, etc ... In short, open-minded people are those who, regardless of the nature of what they see or hear, are able to simply say "wow that is incredible ", or" hey looks great ", or" I do not know if I would, A powerful will and desire to find things that break with all the standards and traditionality that most know and be willing to insert into other realities and put into practice new ideas. I have arrived at these conclusions, after observing the reactions of different people here and there. Others may differ from my criteria. A powerful will and desire to find things that break with all the standards and traditionality that most know and be willing to insert into other realities and put into practice new ideas. Ulfr (3 April 2018)

Actually there are people with an open mind as I describe it and more ahun ... There are those who simply do not know limits going beyond any guideline, conception or scale that could be used to figuratively measure their "creativity" However it is very difficult to find them since They are usually well hidden. Ahun if you have access to internet and try to find groups of this kind of people would not find anything, because they are not in the "classic" internet so to speak, but they are in deep places ... Regarding your second question, I assure you that everything I wrote is taken directly from real experiences. There are people who create their own reality in their mind, leaving that reality on a purely mental level but not material. Those are the second most frequent type. However, there is a third type, formed by those who materialize their mental reality in the real world. What happens is that often these realities seem distorted to the rest of the world, or at least to the great majority, and therefore end up forming or being parts of a hidden material reality that only a few can access. Many people would be surprised if they could contemplate the real size that these spaces can reach once they have been put into practice.

Ulfr (4 April 2018)

It would be interesting to see what others think about it.

Ulfr (10 April 2018)

It would be great to meet more people in Cuba who think the same. I know many people who think like that, only they do not come to Cuba.

undefined.undefined (13 April 2018)

I also think that I have an open mind ... What happens is that even on the internet we are few of us; and on the street we do not tell anyone how we think about sex

Ulfr (13 April 2018)

Why not create a group on Telegram? Anyone can create a private or secret group there. LEs pass the download link:
<https://www.telegram.org/> Telegram is a platform that is easy to use and does not require high speed internet, besides that as almost no one knows it in Cuba because it is not restricted or blocked . Once this group is created, you can chat, and share virtually everything. New users can be added by direct invitation from the group or administrators. In this way it is ensured that ho are marauders.

Erlin.duran (17 April 2018)

The open mind is achieved by looking and checking what you really like or do not do, just that most people are restricted by social considerations, moral, etc., I agree with you in everything.

Ulfr (17 April 2018)

Something very simple happens. People fail to understand that you can have your own partnership with your own laws while living in "external" co-ownership like everyone else. You simply do not have to allow the laws of the external society in which you are inserted to influence your internal society. Your internal society is one that you form with one or more people. Some call it a group or a clan. I call her herd. The laws that prevail there will be those that you define by mutual agreement. The external society with its laws, norms and morality often hollow, etc. remain outside. They have nothing to do with your group

A final word

When confronted, woof made excuses. He did not admit himself agency. We believe this was merely a cynical attempt to deflect culpability. Why did woof continue to gleefully converse with SnakeThing and other zoosadists right up until his activities were leaked? Why did he never express any doubts about what he was doing? Why did he suddenly change from publicly embracing the transgressive to condemning it?

There are few animal cruelty laws in Cuba. However, it is believed that Pernas works for an organisation which could easily be brought into disrepute by his activities and would rapidly eject and discipline him for his work.

It is also true that even in Cuba, where strays can be treat horrendously, that its many Catholics still would feel disgust, revolt, and hate for a man such as Ruben Pernas. Possibly to the point of action. And ironically, the fact that Cuba lacks much in the way of rule of law or consistent application of legislation may ultimately be the force that brings him to justice.

We encourage readers to do the one thing they can to ensure woof faces consequences for his actions, and that any other zoosadists would be deterred from following his path. We believe there to be a substantial flight risk from Cuba once the new year begins and it becomes safe and viable for him to get out of the country. Hence, we ask readers to spread this document now and to spread it to as many agents as they can.
